

BIO-Europe 2018 (5/11/2018~7/11/2018)

Johnson and Johnson Innovation held their 5th regular Startup Slam event at BioEurope. This elevator pitch session gives new biotech companies an opportunity to share their business ideas in front of industry professionals and venture capitalists.

Braizon Therapeutics was proud and grateful to be one of the 8 companies out of 60 applicants to be selected, and pleased to have received great feedback from both the judges and audience members.
